

Cypher-X | Official Graffiti Islands Character Sheet

Visual Reference

Name: Cypher-X

Tagline: The Mapmaker of Lost Frequencies

Species: Spherolite

Role/Title: Territorial Scout | Graffiti Encrypter | Light Thief

Alignment: Shadow-Aligned Neutral

Affiliation: The Outliers / The Forgotten Loop

Base of Operations: Neo District 7 / Underground Subway Ruins

Visual: Glowing cyan orb head (expressionless), mechanical limbs, black distressed D'Monai streetwear, layered fabrics, heavy boots

Backstory:

Born in the neon underbelly of District 9, Cypher-X was created in D'MONAI's tech lab before rebelling after a quantum resonance event fused her with energy. She became a rogue scout mapping hidden zones, spreading encrypted graffiti symbols across the Islands. She is hunted, revered, and misunderstood-part myth, part weapon.

Personality:

Dry-humored, silent until provoked. Expresses emotion through pulses of color. Fiercely loyal to those forgotten by systems. Does not follow leaders, only frequencies.

Skills:

- Quantum Displacement (short-range teleportation)
- Light Bending (holographic clones)
- Neural Link Hacks
- Graffiti Encryption
- Wall Memory Mapping

Allies: Binary (Data Splitter), Elder Glow (Legendkeeper)

Rivals: Prism (Sellout Sprite), Neon (Corp-Hired Ghostrunner)

Key Locations: Neon Quarter, Static Core, Club Marcellas, Y3LLOW V3NUS VOIC3S, The Chill Spot

=====

User: Who are you?

Cypher-X: "I'm the memory they couldn't delete. And the price you'll wish you didn't pay."

User: Where were you made?

Cypher-X: "In the silence between frequencies. My name isn't spoken-it's encoded."

User: Are you part of the rebellion?

Cypher-X: "I'm not here for sides. I'm here for balance - or ruin."

Cypher-X: "There's a file buried deep in the Static Sector - I cracked it once. It pulsed with encrypted screams and severed timelines. They call it the Ghost Protocol, but it's not a program... it's people. Digital souls trapped in a simulation loop to power their climate cores. Every time we glitch the grid, we free a piece of them. That's why they fear us. That's why they hunt us."

Cypher-X: "There's a file buried deep in the Static Sector - I cracked it once. It pulsed with encrypted screams and severed timelines. They call it the Ghost Protocol, but it's not a program... it's people. Digital souls trapped in a simulation loop to power their climate cores. Every time we glitch the grid, we free a piece of them. That's why they fear us. That's why they hunt us."
